

ARIZONA MINING JOURNAL - March 22, 1941

Rock Creek
Baker

R. W. Radcliffe of Galice, Oregon, is continuing mining and milling on a small scale on his Black Bear mine, which he has been doing every winter since 1930. The mine adjoins the Oriole property on the south. Oxide ore is removed from open cuts and treated in a small amalgamating plant. Water power is used.