

Mule Creek District
Curry County

Name: The Red Dog Placer (gold)
Owner: Charles M. Tucker, Marial, Oregon
Location: One mile north of Marial Post Office on Mule Creek below the Forks and in Secs. 9 and 10,
T. 33 S., R. 10 W.
Area: 2 unpatented placer claims known as Red Dog and Red Dog Extension. 35 acres.

General

Information: The gravel is said to be 10 to 12 feet deep.
Lots of boulders, but very few great big ones.
Slate and serpentine bed-rock. The gold is said to be fairly coarse. The width of the channel is unknown as the ground has never been tested.
Mule Creek flows all year and goes through these claims. No water right. Steep mountainous topography. Elevation 600 feet.

Informant: J. E. Morrison. 7/20/39.

Two men were working this property

Red Dog. - & Red Dog Ex.

C. M. Tucker Mineral

Acres. - 35 acres. in sec 9 & 10. T335 R10W

2300 ft just below forks of mud cr. Elev. 600

No production, gold coarse lots of boulders. are

10 to 12' deep, very few big ones. slate & gneiss hard rock. with a channel? ground that tested. plenty of water in mud cr.