M. H. Waggoner, Alsea, has applied for two second feet of water from Last Chance Creek, tributary to Rogue River in Douglas County, for mining purposes.
R. E. and Emmit Overman, Myrtle Creek, have filed on one second foot of water from a tributary to Myrtle Creek, Douglas County, for placer mining purposes.
Frank Williams, Glendale, has applied for 6 2/3 second feet of water from White Horse Creek in Douglas County, for placer mining purposes.
Benjamin W. Brunn, Sales, has applied for one second foot of water from Skunk Gulch, tributary to North Myrtle Creek, in Douglas County, for placer and lode mining purposes.