Nature of the Northwest closes its doors: Last-chance 40 percent off sale this Friday

PORTLAND, Ore.—The Nature of the Northwest Information Center is closing its doors.

A one-day last-chance sale will be held on Friday, July 17 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the store, 800 NE Oregon St., Portland, Suite 965. All items – maps, books, posters and more – will be 40 percent off on Friday.

Nature of the Northwest opened in 1992, offering resources for geologic adventure and outdoor recreation in the Pacific Northwest. The store also served as the outlet for Oregon Department of Geology and Mineral Industries (DOGAMI) scientific data and publications, which will soon be available for free online download at www.OregonGeology.org.

The store will be closed on Thursday, July 16 in preparation for the sale.
